DAILY SENTINEL.

June.

EL MITTINN H' PREFICAT June with its rores—June!

The staddest mouth of our exprictions year, with its thick foliage and its studight clear. And with the drowsy tone

Of the bright leading waters as they pass Laughlegly on amid the springing grass!

Earth at her Joyous counting.

Earth at her Joyous counting, souther a suber puts her gayest manufe on; And nature greets her with a benison;

White myriad voices humaning. Their vectoms ong breathe iteramy made of its deems ine air an element of sound.

The seems are an an execute to some and the overarching size.

Wearth a softer that, a loveller blue, As if the light of heaven were melting through. It is applied home on high:
It applied home on high:
It aling the sunshine in their vapory breast, the clouds front on like spirits to their rest. A deeper melody,
Pour'd by the birds as n'er their callow young Watch'ul as they hover, to the brerze is flung—
Glady me, yet not of glee—
Music heart-born like that which mothers sing
Acove their cradied infants slumbering.

On the warm hillede, where
The smilght lingers latest through the gravs,
Perpeth the insclous atrawherry. As they pass.
Young children gambot there
Grushing the gathered fruit in playful mood,
And studning their bright faces with its blood.

And staining uses origin serven.

A deeper bush is given.

To the half-ripened cherry as the sun
Day after day pours warmly the trees upon,

"Ill the rich pulp is riven.

The trunnt school-boy looks with longing eyes,
And perils neek and limb to win the prize. The farmer in his field,
Draws the rich mould around the tender make;
While hope, bright-pinioned, points to coming days,
When all his tolls shall yield
An ample harvest, and around his hearth
There shall be laughing eyes and tongues of mirth

Poised on his rainbow wing.
The butterfly, whose life is but an hour.
Hovers coquetitishly from flower to dower.
A gay and happy thing.
The bounding and the summer day,
Boon passing like the beautiful away. Boon passing use the occasion wear,

These are thy picturer, June!
Brightest of summer months; thou month of flowers,
First born of heauty, whose swift footed hours

Dance to the merry tune
Of birds and waters and the pleasant shoul
Of childhood on the sunny hills peeled out.

I feel it were not wrong
To dream thou art a type of heaven's clime,
Only that there the clouds and storms of time.
Sweep not the sky cloud;
The flowers—air—beauty—nusic—ail greethine,
But brighter—purer—lovelier—more divine:

But brighter—purer—inveller—more divine:

138 An amusing incident occurred on one of the Hudson river palaces the other day. Among the passengers was an old gentleman who claimed to be 105 years of age—a Revolutionary veteran—and an intimate acquaintence, during his life, of General Washington, whom he persisted in calling simple "George." He told several yarns, and though the subjects of them have long since passed away, and the substance of his stories have been repeated rgain and again, yat his style—of narrating imparted an agreeable freshness to them. But their easy flow was suddenly interrupted by an unlucky wight—another freshness to them. But their easy flow was suddenly interrupted by an unlucky wight—another old gentleman at least seventy years of age—attempting to correct one of the statements of the veterun. The old soldier arose with much dignity, and indignantly replying, "My child, you could have known nothing, yourself, of the circumstances; and you should know better than attempt to correct me on hearsay," walked away to his berth.—Allas and Argus.

A STRANGE STORY .- The Paris correspondent of the New York Evening Post tells the following strange story, the truth of which, he says, may be relied on:

be relied on:

"The Abbe Vigali, Confessor to the Emperor Napoleon at St. Helena, carried about with him sewn up in his gaments, the last will and testament of the fallen monarch, in which hodeclared excluded from the succession to his throne, the two sons of the King of Holland, as a punishment for their father's treason. This will, which has for a long time remained husbed in grim repose, has at last fallen into the hands of the Emperor, by whom it was destroyed. Had it, however, been made public, it would have fallen still-born upon the world. We are now wandering in the dominions of fact, and this tardy protestation of the great Napoleon would have exercised little or no influence on his successor."

Our friends in the interior are invited.

The Nominations.

Our exchanges come to us from every quarter full-freighted with rejoicings and congratulations over the result of the Philadelphia Convention. The Platform and the Men receive the most cordial support, and everywhere the determination is strong to work earnestly for Victory. "Union for the sake of Freedom" is resolved upon, and for the sake of the Union-for its konor and lasting Peace,-Francom must be won.

Our leaders are tried and true; the spirit of freedom-the enthusiasm of anticipated triumph -are with us, and we must succeed. Not by talking-not by slumbering-is the Victory to be gained, but by bard work, by organization, by wiso counsels and by prudent action, from this Ossawattamic left there and came this way just in time till November.

When the Poople call for a man to lead them in our political contests, they stand by him. So they called Harrison-so they called Taylorand so they have called Fremont-and they will the troops, with an apparent intention to avoid

We publish to day in full, the manly and able article of the Wisconsin, giving its reasons for supporting Farmont for President instead of BUCHANAS. We give full credit to the editor for the manliness which has thus prompted bim to act; for it requires some courage for a political newspaper thus to place itself in an attitude of opposition to the leaders and the mass of its party. But the Wisconsin, besides the consciousness of doing right, has the assurance that a great many of its democratic readers endorse its article, in all the fullness of its language and

Said one of the old-fushioned democrats to us " I hope you will give us independent democrate, who never ask for office, but just mind our own business, the credit of determining to break with our party, when our party would disgrace us;" and that is just the spirit which actuates many thousand democrats just now,

Said another democrat to us, " What have you any satisfaction to him and others, we say that we had not exchanged a word on the subject with the editor of the Wisconsin. He has been East, among the old "Silas Wright democrats," of whom we have heard so much, and who were so well represented in the Philadelphia Convention, and has found everywhere among them a determination to submit to disgrace no longer and, like them, and a host of such men in Wisconsin he looks to the able, gallant, resolute honest Pathander of Empire, to lead the united nost through the Nonzu Pass, and bring peace to

LOOK OUT FOR PICKPOUKETS .- A correspondent of the Chicago Tribune sends that paper the following warning:

You will confer a favor by informing the public through your columns that there are a number of blacklegs travelling through the country with Daizsbach & Co's Circus, passing a large quantity of counterfeit money. It is supposed that $100 were circulated in this small village on the day of the performance. It would be well denomination are chiefly $10's on the Commercia Bank, Kingston, C. W. SHELTON. A Good Movement.-Mr. McCallum, Super intendent of the New York & Erie Railroad. bas issued a circular to all the baggage-men along the road, instructing them to handle luggage with extreme care, and has requested all passengers to report to him the names of persons whom they may discover violating this rule.

We are giad to see this movement, and trust that other Superintendents will follow the good listed 25 of our men. example. The manner in which baggage is thrown about, battered and broken open, now-a-days, is shameful. It is particularly so at Chicago.

do think. As to the rest, when "King and chair, and Mr. Wm. Drummond was appointed Booth "are candidates, it will be time enough to to act as Secretary. answer. At this present time of writing, we think that the Germans, loving Freedom, will support Free Speech, a Free Press, Free Kansas. and FREMONT. The symptoms are excellent.

The Locofocos charge the Republican party with being disunionists, but Hon. H. S. Lane, in Roberts and Mr. I. Tinker. his speech to the Philadelphia Convention, hit the truth precisely, when he said, that "the only men who raised the cry of disunion were the unbung pullifiers of South Carolina, with Gen'l Jackson's halter around their necks."

Is it Possinik ?-- Kentucky is cetting to be so doubtful a state that the democracy there are trying to bolster up their cause by hetting that it will go for Buchanan! The fact that these bets are taken shows that there is to be a sharp contest in that State. Tho News is daily giving its readers an dea of its standard of "gentlemanly" conduct, with which, if its editor is satisfied, we shart quarrel. Its personalities only answer the end of making it ridiculous, and we certainly have no objection to that. Its wit is pointless, and we objection to that. Its wit is pointless, and we have the ground of principle.

Late this evening we have two conflicting reports from there—the one is that the whole company of dragoons then went into town and dispersed them—the other that they had sacked and burned the town, which last report receives confirmation with some, from the fact that they saw smoke in that direction about the time the destruction should have taken place. The first report is probably correct, because a company of dragoons would not have permitted the destruction of the town if they were present as stated. It is also charged against the troops that the Company at Orsewattenin left there and came this war just in the organized limits he is not—always a moderate democrat, but never a partition. Eight were then sent to disperse them, when charged against the troops that the Company at Ossawattamic left there and came this way just in time to prevent a part of Whitfield's company, which was dispersed, to go there and plunder that town; and the company which was in Palmyra to-day have been passed and repassed by

There is also a company of some two hundred or more, between Westport and this place, committing continual depredations and violence upon persons and property passing through the country, at the same time the two companies of dragoons, encamped between here and Franklin, have been ordered to the south.

On the other hand, those of Whitfield's army who returned to Missouri swore all manner of hard things against Col. Sninner, for dispersing them, threatening to hang him if they catch him, and attributing their delays and the difficulty of getting volunteers to come to the Terlitory, to his opposition. They have, for some time past, had petitions in circulation along the border for his removal. Sumner will do his duty.

It is said that there are eight dead bodies between Palmyra and Westport, on the route of the invaders, lying along the side of the road, the most of them at Cedar Creek, some of whom have been recognized as murdered Free State men. One who was a prisoner with them several days, Rev. Mr. Webster, says, that on two seve ral occasions a prisoner was brought into the camp, taken into the woods, and he heard guns discharged, and saw nothing of the prisoners thereafter. He was himself most inhumanly treated, so much so that he desired death. He was in the camp of that party that was captured at Prairie City, and the most welcome sound he ever heard was the firing when they were attacked by the Free State men.

I don't know that I mentioned in a former letter that three prisoners whom the invaders had taken were in that battle, placed in the front for country people to be on their guard. The rank, and received the fire of their own friends: of whom one was a father, and his son was one of the foremost in the attack, and was thus innocently and inhumanty obliged to fire upon him. Mr. Webster was one of the three.

We can test assured that no Presidential Veto on the St. Clair flats would come from him. Instead of making our nation pay $120,000,000, for the purchase of Caba, a policy to which Mr. Buchanan is committed in his Ostend letter, he would prefer to see the money expended in the construction of an iron highway to the Pacifications by the seed of the construction of an iron highway to the Pacifications by the seed of railways in the western States, would create five times the wealth that the road has cost, and it would be a nobler, grander monument of our country's imperishable glory, than the proudest buttles recorded in Listory.

The American, of this city, states the follow ing as the ground upon which it supports Fre-mont for President. We put it on record as a the Boston Telegraph, in a recent letter, says : In set the ground apout which it on record as a plain, straightforward statement, which should at once set at rest all question about the matter:

The American party, through their representations of the old school at the theatre last week, in The American party, through their representatives in New York, have nominated the Republican candidate for the Presidency, simply and solely on account of his reliability upon the great and overtowering issues now before the initials of the people of the country—the issues of free speech, a free press, and the non-extension of slavery beyond the boundary where the Missouri Compromise restricted it. Beyond the readiness and shifty of Mr. Francosr, to carry out these principles, the American Convention did not enquire, and the democratic lie that Mr. F. arowed himself as a sympathizing friend of the other distinctive principles of the American organization, has been sufficiently refuted without our stopping to deny it here. In the present Presidential campaign, the nuti-Filmore anti-Nebraska American party, will lend itself fully and entirely to the work of multing into one firm and invaluenable phalanx, all the opponents of the basest, most degraded and service party that ever laid claim to the title of democratic party. This is its only desire, its only expectation.

We cannot too highly conveyed the review.

We cannot too highly commend the patriot ism which leads to such a declaration as the above, and we trust that, before long, even that degree of alienation may be dispelled which pre vents a perfect union of all true lovers of Free dom upon Mr. Davion, who is as true as steel upon the great issues. The peculiar construction of our Electoral Colleges requires an entir nanimity to secure success,

Now, while we write, grateful expressions are heard on every hand that the Philadelphia con-rention has so acted that all the opponents of the aggressive policy of the slave power can unite and present an unbroken front, and save the country from the perils to which it has been and is exposed. Everywhere congratulation follows congratulation, and the public pulse heartily responds to the nomination of the young, brave and rigorous pioneer of California. Confiding in his Sixthly—The election of Frencox is the way and the path to secure Kansas against the invasion of the Missouri ruffans—and hence its only chance of becoming a five State.

Strenthly—As Tresident he will see that the doctrine of "popular sovereignty" is fairly carried out in the Territories which both the Fierce and Douglas and Buchanan partisans have repudsived in their Platform, and, what is still more significant, in their actions.

While taking this stand, we have been the most pained from the consciousness that we may a most pained from the consciousness that we may be most pained from the consciousness that we may the freedom have so long been crushed by the iron despotism of the slave power and its allies. To despotism of the slave power and its allies. To the free hearts of the north an opportunity is now offered to secure the boon of independence of offered to secure the boon of independence of which they have so long been deprived. To those, (and where in the north dwells there not a man of the number:) whose honest, manly a man of the number?) whose nonest, manly feelings have been outraged by the insults put upon our common free humanity by cowardly ruffians in Kansas and Washington, a glorious opportunity is now presented to wipe away the stain which defiles their manhood. To the young men, a leader is offered who is of themselves, and no purblind precedent hunter. To the national men who prefer, before attempting the acquisition of foreign territory, to tempting the acquisition of integral territory, to improve the magnificent resources as yet undeveloped, of their own, a man is presented who, insisting upon his national rights, deems equally sacred the rights of other nations. Finally, to all who have the greatest, noblest interests of their country at heart-who are actuated by the holy principles of freedom which have thus far maintained us as a nation—to every nations free-hearted man is presented a candidato, at a pintform of principles, such as he has long looked for, and simost despaired to see. Now, if ever, must the battle between truth and error -between right and wrong, be fought; and woo be to us all it the opportunity is not improved

To all who have not forgotten the deep interest taken in that class of books which have done so much to awaken the feelings of the people to a sense of the miseries of slavery, this volume communed diself. It is the true arrative of a black man who, when a boy, was stolen from Philadelphia and sold in Kentucky, grow up in slavery and suffering, bought his freedom who; a man, came north and begged money to buy his wife, and children.— His adventures, both north and and south, are of the most interesting nature. The Starz and Transports of the Garat West; including Onlo, Indiana, Plinots, Missouri, Michigan, Wisconsio, Lows, Minneson, Kanasa and Nobraska; by Jacob Peras, Sililor, Octon & Mulligan.
We cannot better give an idea of what this valuable book really is, than by copying the rumainder of its very long title:—"Their Geography, History, Advantages, Re-sources and Prospects, comprising their local history, in-stitutions and laws; giving a table of distances, and the most direct routes and means of conveyance; also point ing out the best districts for agricultural, commercial, into-bering and Mining operations."

When we say that the author has given his renders very reliable information upon all the subjects above indicated we give the book high praise. It must prove a very useful volume to the many who, in the east, are turning their eyes Westward for new homes.

(ADVERTISEMENTAL) Murray's Addition.

Macons Entrops:—On to-morrow morning, (Thursday)
June 26, is the second sale of lots in Murray's addition.
It is no desire of mine to induce any one to do that which is not for their interest. I have only a word to say in regard to the lots in Murray's addition, and it is this:
If Milwaukee will continue to increase aerapidly the next five years as it has the past live years, then the lots in Marray's addition will be worth at least four times the price they have been selling at the first sale I bad, and up to the present time.

I have sold altogether about thirty-three lots, at an average of about two hundred and sixty dollars per lot— This certainly affords to all classes an opportunity of ob-taining a home for themselves at a very low price, and on very easy terms; and there is no reason in this world why Murrays addition should not be well settled. It is in the First Ward, and the grounds are beautiful. Any one who has any surplus money, I would say to them, you cannot, I think, do any better than make investments in And a collection of rare and beautiful ANIMALS, selected Murray's addition.

The terms are very easy indeed, one fith cash, balance 1, 2, 8 and 4 years, with soven per cent interest. Thursday morning, June 26, at 10 o'clock is the day of sale, and it is the last and final sale. There will be no by-bidding, no deception, no misrepresentations made. Mr Murray is allowed one bid and no more; he does not set this property to rate money, but having several acres more around it, he is willing to give all a chance to get them a home, on the easiest terms property has ever been sold for.

TROFESSOR WOOD'S Hair Remorally eight doubt the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress, for it will restore, permanently, grey hair to fit original color, cover the head of the bald with a most luxuriant growth, remove at once all dandruf and the hing, cure all Scroubls and other cutaneous er-prions, such as scall head, &c. It will cure as if by made, nervous or periodical head date, make the hair and, glossy, and way, and preserve the color perfock, and the hair from failing to extreme old age. We could give the testimony of more than one hundred thousand to the truth of every word we have written. See circular and the following:
